Public Policy in Action...

Looking for the latest information on health care reform, civil discourse, or the role of journalism in public policy? At the John Glenn School of Public Affairs, we make complex policy issues accessible to you. Join us this April for three in-depth discussions:

Civility in Politics

A Moderated Conversation with Mr. Bob Bennett and Representative Ted Celeste

Thursday, April 15

4:30 p.m.

Policy Forum, room 100 Page Hall
1810 N College Road

RSVP required: Please e-mail apr15@jgippm.ohio-state.edu by Monday, April 12.

In recent months we've all become too familiar with this scenario: while debating the most pressing policy issues of the day, an elected official breaches protocol with an extreme outburst. How can we move away from crippling partisan divisions and towards civil discourse as a means of solving our problems? Join former chairman of the Ohio Republican Party Bob Bennett, and Representative Ted Celeste (D – 24th District) for their thoughts on the way forward. This small-group discussion will be followed by questions from the audience.

LIMITED SEATING STILL AVAILABLE

Senator Thomas Daschle

Perspectives on Health Care Reform

Tuesday, April 27

4 p.m.

Fawcett Center

Assembly Hall Auditorium
2400 Olentangy River Road

Limited seating still available; RSVP required: please send your reservation request to apr27@jgippm.ohio-state.edu or call 614-688-3206, ext. 1. We expect this event to sell out quickly so RSVP soon for your chance at a seat.

Where is the U.S. now with regard to health care reform? What does the new Federal health care law mean for you? Join former U.S. Senate Majority Leader Thomas Daschle for an insider's look at one of the largest changes in national health policy in recent history. Thomas Daschle, a Representative and a Senator from South Dakota, served in Congress from 1978 to 2005. An outspoken advocate for health care reform, Daschle authored Critical: What We Can Do About the Health-Care Crisis.

Co-sponsored by The Ohio State University Medical Center, and presented as the Glenn School's 2010 Stanley C. Muroff Civil Liberties Forum

In Conversation with Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein
Wednesday, April 28
4 p.m.

Ohio Union

Performance Hall, first floor
1739 North High Street

RSVP required: please send your reservation request to apr28@jgippm.ohio-state.edu or call 614-688-3206, ext. 3 by Friday, April 23. We expect this event to sell out quickly, but we will maintain a wait list.

Few journalists in American history have had the impact on their era as Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein, who earned this place from their investigative reporting of the Watergate scandal in the early 1970's. Join us for their observations on the Presidency and the policy process in the Federal government. This lecture is co-sponsored by the Ohio Telecom Association.
